

NORTH CAROLINA PRESENTERS CONSORTIUM
2026 ANNUAL MEETING

APPALACHIAN THEATRE OF THE HIGH COUNTRY
BOONE, NC | JUNE 15-17, 2026

SUZANNE LIVESAY

Suzanne Livesay is a dynamic musical theater educator and arts leader with more than two decades of experience inspiring performers of all ages. She holds a BMus in Musical Theater from Stetson University and an MEd in Secondary Education from Belhaven University. Suzanne began her career onstage, performing professionally before discovering her passion for teaching while working as a Walt Disney World cast member.

Her work in performing arts education spans every grade level, from kindergarten through high school, eventually leading her into arts administration.

Suzanne spent six years at the Straz Center for the Performing Arts in Tampa, FL, where she served as Theater Chair and later as Vice President of Education, overseeing the nationally recognized Patel Conservatory.

After relocating to Boone, NC, in 2020, Suzanne returned to the classroom to teach K-8 music and theater in Watauga County. In 2022, she stepped into her current role as Executive Director of the Appalachian Theatre of the High Country, where she continues to champion community engagement and arts education.
